

H.E.A. 310
by Christophe de la Fontaine

Inspired by the world's great metropolis' and their ability to constantly reinvent themselves, the stool derives from the construction T-beam. This generic industrial shape is transformed, with the help of black leather upholstery and curved lines, into a comfortable stool.

Typology: Stool

Material/finish:

powder coated t-beam, upholstered leather seat

Colours:

powder coated t-beam in:

white

black

leather seat in:

white

black

anthracite

Dimensions:

50 x 42 x 28 cm

